

GURU SHAKUNTALA R PRABHATH

Shakuntala R Prabhath is one of Karnataka's many splendid artists. A classical Bharatanatyam dancer and prime Natuvanar par excellence, Guru. Shakuntala is trained in Bharatanatyam style of dance under the renowned guru Smt. Narmada.

Guru. Smt. Shakuntala, apart from being a Bharatanatyam dancer, is also trained in martial arts, folk dances and yoga. A splendid artist and dance choreographer, Shakuntala, has choreographed several dance dramas, plays and dance productions for stage and television.

Guru. Shakuntala has performed and carried Indian culture and heritage nationally and internationally and has proved to be an able cultural ambassador. She has travelled all over India and many other countries such as U.S.A, U.K, Malaysia, Singapore, Switzerland and several places in Europe taking with her a whiff of the cultural heritage of our country. She has represented the country at several international seminars and cultural festivals considering which, many cultural and government organizations have bestowed several awards upon her.

Currently, Guru Shakuntala trains more than 350 students across Bangalore and runs the institute - "SAMUDYATA" (Srichakra Academy of Music, Dance, Yoga, and theatre Arts) at Prabhatha Kala Tapovana, Bangalore South. She has mentored many young dancers by guiding them for Vidhwat examinations, Ranga Praveshas, Door Darshan and solo & group performances at prestigious platforms.

She holds to her credit of directing 20+ dance dramas and 50+ classical compositions using the vast exposure and experience of 45 years in the field.